Eogogics: Technology and Soft Skills Training and Services

Eogogics principals have been engaged in ground-breaking projects around the world for 20+ years. The team is composed of individuals with many diverse talents. But there are some traits they all share: they rank in the top tier of their field, enjoy problem-solving, and communicate with clarity and passion. This allows us to offer knowledge services the way no one else does. Eogogics is a sole-source or preferred knowledge services provider for well-known companies in the US and abroad, Federal and state agencies, national labs, universities, trade associations, and nonprofits.
